Escanaba Public Library Announces Summer Reading Program Events

Registration for this year's Children's Summer Reading Program "Oceans of Possibility" begins on Monday, June 13.

The kick-off event is on Wednesday, June 8 at 4:30 p.m., featuring Joel Tacey and his Magical Comedy Show. Families are encouraged to come to the City Council chambers and enjoy this highly-acclaimed entertainer. The show will be followed by the Friends of the Escanaba Public Library's annual Ice Cream Social and book sale on the north lawn of the library at 6 p.m., with entertainment by the Escanaba City Band.

Beginning on Tuesday, June 14, Lunch with the Munch Bunch will meet on the Children's Room patio at 11:30 a.m. Children should bring a sack lunch. After lunch, children can enjoy stories in the storyroom. These lunches go through July 19.

Tuesday, June 28 and Tuesday, July 19 will be Adventures in Crafting with Pasqua Warstler at 2:00 pm. This program is for ages 7 and up.

On Wednesday, August 3, Jamie Kozloski will present her "Exotic Animal Rescue" program at 3:00 p.m. This show is for all ages, and will take place in the City Council chambers.

The library is also offering a Teen Summer Reading Program for ages 13-17, with opportunities to win prizes such as gift cards to Willow Creek Cinema 8, Sherlock & Key Escape Room, and Canterbury Bookstore. Participants can pick up their bingo cards and program information beginning on Wednesday, June 8.

All events are free and open to the public. The Escanaba Public Library is located at 400 Ludington Street in downtown Escanaba. For more information, call 906-789-7323, visit our website at escanabalibrary.org or follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.
