Author Talk & Book Signing with Bonnie Jo Campbell

The Escanaba Public Library is pleased to host award-winning author Bonnie Jo Campbell on Thursday, October 29, at 5:30 p.m. as she discusses her latest novel, The Spirits.

Campbell, the bestselling author of The Waters (a Read with Jenna Book Club Pick), returns with a tale of love, transgression, and the healing power of family. In this contemporary Christmas Carol, The Spirits is a complex, gritty, spooky, and ultimately heartwarming holiday story set in an isolated Michigan farmhouse.

When an unexpected guest arrives at a long-dreaded Christmas Eve dinner, family secrets begin to surface. Through humor, forgiveness, and the enduring power of familial love, the story offers hope for a brighter and more joyful future.

A limited number of books will be available for purchase at the event; however, Campbell encourages readers to purchase copies in advance. The Spirits will be released on October 13, and pre-orders are available through Canterbury Bookstore in Escanaba.
