Escanaba Public Library Announces New Director

The Escanaba Public Library is pleased to welcome its new director, Kate Trombley. Originally from Temperance, Michigan, Trombley brings experience in library services, higher education, and administration, along with a strong passion for community engagement and lifelong learning.

After earning her Bachelor of Arts in Communication from Michigan State University, Trombley continued her education at the University at Buffalo, where she earned a Master of Science in Information and Library Science.

On taking the role as Director of the Escanaba Public Library, Ms. Trombley says:

"Libraries are the heart of a community. They are places where people of all ages and backgrounds can come together to learn, connect, and grow. I am honored to serve as the Director of the Escanaba Public Library and look forward to working alongside our dedicated staff, Board of Trustees, Friends of the Library, and community partners to ensure the library continues to be a welcoming and inspiring space for everyone."

The Escanaba Public Library is located at 400 Ludington Street in downtown Escanaba. For more information, visit our website at www.escanabalibrary.org or follow them on Facebook and Instagram.

Mission Statement:

Enhancing the enjoyment and livability of our community by providing quality municipal services.

The City of Escanaba is an equal opportunity employer and provider.
